Discrimination is Against the Law

Grove Hill Rural Emergency Hospital (GHREH) complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex (consistent with the scope of sex discrimination described at 45 CFR § 92.101(a)(2). GHREH does not exclude people or treat them less favorably because of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.

GHREH provides people with disabilities reasonable modifications and free appropriate auxiliary aids andservices to communicate effectively with us, such as:

- Qualified sign language interpreters
- Written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, and other formats).
- Provides free language assistance services to people whose primary language is not English, which may include:
    - ◊ Qualified interpreters
    - ◊ Information written in other languages.

If you need reasonable modifications, appropriate auxiliary aids and services, or language assistance services, contact the Section 1557 coordinator at 251-275-4063.

If you believe that GHREH has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, you can file a grievance with the Section 1557 coordinator at: 295 S Jackson Street Grove Hill, Alabama 36451, 251-275-4063, 711 (TTY), 251-275-3191, jpugh@gh-health.org. You can file a grievance in person or by mail, fax, or email. If you need help filing a grievance, the Section 1557 coordinator is available to help you.
